

2011–2012 Sculptures on the Edina Promenade and Grandview Square

Gyr Family Cycle 2009 People's Choice First Place

by Perci Chester
Minneapolis, Minn.
Stainless Steel $35,000
*Denotes youth and aging,
the generational presence,
projecting hope and suggesting stewardship in maintaining the continuity
of all life forms.*

Reflecting on Friendship 2010 People's Choice Second Place

by Nicholas Legeros Edina, Minn.
Bronze $10,000
Portrays two preschool kids running around and trying to pop bubbles. As I made this sculpture I was amazed at how flexible kids are at that age.

Holy Big Bird 2010 People's Choice Third Place

by Stephen J. Fischer Sullivan, Wis.
Aluminum $23,000
*Years of watching sand hill cranes which the Asians call Holy Big Bird
was the inspiration for this sculpture.*

Time Piece Permanent. ( A gift from Dee Kennedy )

by Dean Holzman
St. Paul, Minn.
Steel, Aluminum,
Cedar, Rocks.
*The piece is a series of arcs as is life. I see it as a place to sit and reflect; a sundial where you can watch the shadows
move and evolve.*

Three Trees Permanent. ( A gift from the artist )

by Kevin Komadina Edina, Minn.
Ceramic
Humans and nature are intimately connected and interdependent. Earth's resources benefit all Mankind.

Minn Eco Turtle Permanent. ( A gift from the Public Art Committee )

by Kathy Gustafson - Bemidji, Minn.
Painted Steel
*The shell includes plant life
from different Minnesota ecosystems.*

Transponder

by Steve Elliot
Wayne, Nebr.
Welded stainless steel
$7,500
An abstraction of nature inspired by patterns that are infinite and ever changing.

The Plunge 2010 People's Choice First Place

by Deb Zeller - Victoria, Minn. - Bronze $15,000
The plunge has become a symbol for action. Take the first step, make a commitment, dive in and get started.

2011–2012 Sculptures on the Edina Promenade and Grandview Square

Lissome-Q

by Guy J Bellever
St. Charles, Ill.
Steel $6,000
Based on a figure study done in the seventies, here it delves into negative and positive space and is part of the artist's Quark series.

Raindrops

by Dean Holzman
St. Paul, Minn.
Steel $3,600
This is a simple vertical form but viewed from different angles, it takes on multiple personalities.

Visit Grandview Square, southeast of the Edina Library (near Eden Avenue) and view the sculptures.

Blue Heron with Pumpkinseed

by Judd Nelson
Wayzata, Minn.
Recycled Steel $3,400
The heron is standing in shallow water looking for dinner. The fish under the lily pad is staying very still.

Sunniva

by James Gabbert
Eden Prairie, Minn.
Welded Steel $3,500
"A gift of the Sun"
The open spaces in the body surface can glint with light and suggest recent pictures of the surface of the sun.

Steelie Sphere

by Perci Chester
Minneapolis, Minn.
Steel $18,000
A construction of 22" steel circles in a playful circle. It has the appearance of moving in the wind.

La Diva Moving

by Ruth Aizuss Migdal
Chicago, Ill.
Painted Steel $20,000

2011 Edina Promenade & Grandview Square Tear-off Ballot

Visit the Promenade, south of Galleria on 70th Street, and Grandview Square, southeast of the Edina Community Library near Eden Avenue. Vote by September 30, 2011 using this ballot. Winning sculptors will receive cash awards and an invitation to exhibit for another year. We hope to purchase the first place winning sculpture, depending on your financial support.
